Laying the Groundwork - Understanding the Modules

- The TravelOffice system is comprised of two modules; the Invoice Management System (“Invoicing”) and the Back-Office Management System (“Back-Office”). The Invoicing system is used to create and manage all of the office transactions by inside or outside agents, and managers. While agents can only manage invoices for their own customer bookings, managers can monitor and review all agents’ (at the manager’s branch location) invoices through the Invoicing system. The travel management system engine then processes the completed invoices.
- The administrator, accountant(s) and manager(s) can access the Back-Office system to review, reconcile, or generate reports and manage various functions of the agency. Various functions are available in the Back-Office system, including sales activity reporting, managing customer receivables, tracking commissions receivable from suppliers and amounts payable to suppliers, agent payroll calculations, trust accounting, and much more.

How to Access the TravelOffice System

The screenshot shows the 'Travel Management System' login interface. It features a blue header with the title 'Travel Management System'. Below the header is a section titled 'Login Details:' with a blue background. The form contains four input fields: 'Module:' with a dropdown menu set to 'Invoice Management', 'User Id:', 'User Password:', and 'Agency Code:'. A blue 'Login' button is positioned below the fields. At the bottom left of the page, there is a 'Contact Us' link.

TIP: To access the system quickly, bookmark the log-in page, and create a desktop icon on your desktop. To create a desktop icon, simply click and drag the icon in the address bar (where the URL is located) of your browser.

A Word About User Roles

Before we can create users and set-up the agency profiles, it is important to understand the various user roles that can be assigned. In order to maintain security and effectively manage your agency, each user of the TravelOffice system must be assigned a user role. The user role will determine what functions within the TravelOffice system the user can access.

There are four user roles within the system:

- Administrator: Highest level of access, with full-access to all invoices on the system.
- Accountant: Similar level of access as the Administrator, with full-access to all invoices on the system.
- Manager: Has full-access to all invoices for agents at the manager's branch only.
- Agent: Limited access to only their own invoices and no access to the back-office management system.

The following tables on the next page summarizes the features and activities that can be performed by each user role within the Invoicing system and Back-Office system.

Legend:

- ✓ Full access to all locations and invoices
- L Limited access to all invoices at own location only
- O Limited access to own invoices only
- x No access
